

I use captioning on TV all the time and all the channels. It really does disturb me when it is not available. At the age of 32 yrs. old I lost all my hearing and I do enjoy TV watching but when it is not captioned.....it really does make me angry and depressed. Some channels are better than others. I wish there would be something done to include the live interviews on especially news and weather.

Thank you